Principal’s Update

SPRING FEST – A WONDERFUL SUCCESS
A very big thank you to Spring Fest Committee: P&C President Glenn Rieger, parent Vicki Farmer, Deputy Principal Cartia Balladone and Marketing and Communications Manager Mel Kennedy plus the stall convenors. The choir performance with Ms Vanderbyl was delightful. The string ensembles and the bands also performed and Mrs Kallioinen and team organised our students representing many different countries in the multi-cultural parade. It was a night of delight for the children with all the rides and the fireworks and a night of team work for parents, grandparents, staff and friends of Robertson. The opening ceremony saw the attendance of Councillor Steven Huang, MLA Peter Russo and later the attendance of Federal Member for Moreton Mr Graham Perrett. This was a wonderful community evening. Well done to all.

SCHOOL OPINION SURVEY – PRELIMINARY REPORTS
The preliminary report for the School Opinion Survey has been received. There is a significant improvement in the staff survey results compared to 2014. For example, of the 39 teachers surveyed in 2015, 97% feel that teaching at the school is rewarding, compared to 34 teacher surveyed in 2014 and 85% of teachers felt that teaching at the school was rewarding place to work. The student survey results again were very positive this year with 60 students surveyed and 99% like being at the school in 2015, In 2014 121 students were surveyed and 95% liked being at the school in 2014. Last year 127 parents (17%) responded to the survey and this year 49 (6.8%) parents responded to the survey. 96% of parents stated that their students liked being at the school this year. The full results of the school opinion survey will be shared at the next P&C meeting. The information from the survey will inform our improvement agenda and the School Annual Implementation Plan for 2016.

We currently have two teachers sharing the gifted education coordinator’s role, Heidi Isaksen and Zoe Grafton. Congratulations to Lara in 3/4C.

Congratulations to Edmund in 5H.

Congratulations to Melody from 5/6G.

Earlier in the term, Melody travelled to Sydney to compete in the 16th Annual Australian Percussion Eisteddfod. Melody competed in a number of percussion categories and won first place in the Junior High Solo for mallet. Melody performed for the school on a recent assembly and captivated the audience with her musical talents.

conGraTulations To Edmund in 5h.

At Redlands Eisteddfod Lara won first place, a gold medal and $200 in the 12 yrs. and under impromptu speaking competition. This was a great achievement as she placed first above many other students in grade 6 and 7 from other schools.

Sponsorship.

Thank you to all who volunteered and came along to support the 2015 Spring Fest. The fest started with outstanding performances from our cultural parade and choir and concluded with the spectacular fireworks.

A great night was had by all who attended and thank you to our sponsors and volunteers for another wonderful Spring Fest.

Music News

Congratulations to every single singer who performed at the Spring Fest opening, what a wonderful way to start a fantastic evening at Robertson. Also, many thanks to our parent helpers, Mrs Lewis, Mrs Brown and also Mrs Tacon, who were there behind the scenes assisting in their incredible way! Special mention must go to the soloists and small groups who took the floor, or should I say Netball Court, so professionally. They are amazing young singers!

There is Senior Choir at 7:30 am this Friday morning as we do a very fast preparation for the upcoming Silkstone Eisteddfod soon after the holidays!

Cheers and happy holidays

Nǐ Hǎo! 你好

- The date of the Chinese Moon Festival is “the 15th day of the 8th lunar month” in Chinese lunar calendar. This year in 2015, it is on Sunday 27 September. The Chinese Moon Festival is also called the Mid-Autumn Festival (zhōng qiū jié). This festival is one of the three large Chinese festivals throughout the year. Chinese people are celebrating this festival at the moment.

Some interesting facts about this festival:

- The moon festival celebrates the Autumn harvest and a long, healthy life. The Autumn season in China is from September to November.

- Family and friends get together to eat moon cakes, dance and gaze at the full moon. Children play with lanterns late into the night.

- Moon Cakes are a traditional food in this festival which usually have fillings of fruit or nut paste. Egg yolks inside also signify more good luck.

- Red food such as apples and lobster are believed to be good luck and served at the festival.

- Legend says the moon lady who lives in the moon will grant unselfish wishes to the pure of heart.

Year 2 students worked on their Chinese artwork (lion hat-shí tóu mào) during planning week. There are some photos below to show their wonderful work.

Today’s sentences:

- Happy Mid-Autumn Festival!  中秋节快乐!zhōng qiū jié kuài le!

- The moon cakes are delicious. 月饼 yuè bǐng hěn hǎo chī.

HOW TO AVOID PAINFUL CONSEQUENCES

Have you ever done something really silly and gotten yourself into a lot of trouble? I know I have. I recall a certain vegemite sandwich that got me a school detention and litter duty. I was climbing the stairs to my classroom after lunch when it caught my eye. There it was, balanced precariously on the edge of the railing. So I reached out and flicked it off. Suddenly there was a shout from below and then two teachers came charging up the stairs. “what were you thinking they shouted at me?” The problem was that I hadn’t been thinking anything. I had just acted. I was so embarrassed.

That’s when I learned the valuable lesson to “think before you act!” If you want to avoid making poor decisions, first you need to stop and think about the consequences, because there are always consequences.

I believe that you will reap what you sow. If you choose to do bad things, then bad things will happen to you. But if you choose to do good things, then good things will happen to you. Some people call it Karma, others call it common sense. Either way the message is clear - if you want to avoid a lot of painful consequences, then think before you act.

HOW TO AVOID PAINFUL CONSEQUENCES 如何避免痛苦的後果

你有沒有做過一些愚蠢的事情並讓自己惹上麻煩過？我知道我有過。我記得曾經一份vegemite三明治害得我留校和做值日，當時我走在欄杆的邊緣上上樓梯，突然打滑跌了下去，突然兩個老師上來沖我喊：“你當時在想什麼？”問題就是我當時什麼都沒有想。我得到了一個很好的教訓：“想想再做！”，如何避免愚蠢的決定，首先你要想想後果，因為所有的事情都有後果。種瓜得瓜種豆得豆，如果你選擇做壞的事情，壞的事情就會發生，如果你選擇做好的事情，好的事情就會發生，有的人叫這是因緣，有的人叫這是常識，不管你怎麼叫，想要避免不好的事情，那麼就先想想再付出行動。

相處之道適用於同學之間，是有效地解決矛盾、遵守規則而不是亂發脾氣。
